Subcommittee: Community Plan Update

Administrative Matters:

Number of Meetings: 12

New Members Elected: Tim Nguyen & Paul Yung

Change in Membership: Todd Majcher resigned and Juan Arriaga (also from LOWE Enterprises) filled his seat. Richard Vernon resigned and Mike Huntoon (Solar Turbines) took his place.

Categories of Members Seated on the KMPG: Property Owner, Resident, Company Representative & Community Organizer

Revisions to the Planning Group's bylaws, procedures and policies: None

Members Summary:

Number of members in bylaws: 16

Number of members seated: 16

Community Plan Preparation, Plan Amendments, and Implementation:

The KMPG voted on 8 members to start a subcommittee whose purpose is to represent the KMPG with regard to the Kearny Mesa Community Plan Update. John Turpit was initially voted as the head up the Subcommittee and later gave up his position. Buzz Gibbs took John's place as the head of the subcommittee.

Special Projects: Kearny Mesa Planning Group Members chose not to vote on Conditional Use Projects involving marijuana facilities until applicants seeking approval from the KMPG could show that the City of San Diego cleared them of all outstanding violations and CEQA was approved.

Acknowledgements: The Kearny Mesa Planning Group would also like to note the ongoing concern over the number of homeless currently residing in Kearny Mesa. Throughout 2018, Officer Dave Gibson acknowledged the homeless concerns and ways in which the police department and City of San Diego planned to assist and help the community members living on the street, in their cars and motorhomes. The Kearny Mesa Planning Group would like to thank Officer Gibson for all of his hard work and efforts to keep Kearny Mesa a safe and desirable place to live and work.

Associated Community Organization: Convoy District
