Six trustees were seated in April 2021. The LJCPA had 18 Trustees during the year. Elections will be held in March 2022 for six seats. As of February 2022, we had 94 members. We actually gained 3 members over last year. We always seek new members and welcome everyone in the community.

The LJCPA held 12 regular meetings during the period beginning on April 1, 2021, by teleconference as recommended by the City of San Diego using the online platform Zoom. Every meeting was attended by 60 to 100 persons and ran smoothly, thanks to the expert technical assistance of our 1st Vice President. State and local government officials attended the meetings providing valuable information including Covid emergency measures to the community.

In addition to the success of the Zoom meetings, the LJCPA Website continues to provide to the public all data and information including project plans and extensive materials from project applicants, letters, and comments for each item on the agenda. It is also a valuable resource for the community with information on project reviews, land use regulations and local government. It includes all meeting agendas, meeting minutes and administrative information about the organization and the sub-committees, past and present.

Five code revisions submitted to the 2021 Code Update Process by the LJCPA were adopted by the City Council in the 2021 Update to the San Diego Municipal Code and Local Coastal Program. Three of the code revisions updated the La Jolla Shores Planned District Ordinance, the others were to increase size of posted public notices and clarify calculation of height measurements in the Municipal Code.

Throughout the year the Community Planning Group meetings provided a community forum for review, discussion, recommendations, and actions concerning the following items affecting La Jolla:

The La Jolla Traffic & Transportation Board meetings provide a forum for community members to discuss the many problems with traffic in La Jolla and provide useful information to City.

Project review is a major focus of the LJCPA. During this year the group and their sub-committees reviewed 52 projects. Discretionary projects are referred to the Development Permit Review or the La Jolla Shores Permit Review Subcommittee depending on their location. Projects located in La Shores are referred to the La Jolla Shores Permit Review Committee for review under the La Jolla Shores Planned District Ordinance. Projects located in the La Jolla Planned District (primarily the La Village area) are also reviewed by the Planned District Ordinance Committee. Projects are usually reviewed once or twice by the subcommittee then sent to the LJ CPA for approval on consent. A project may be pulled for review by the full Planning Group. If findings cannot be made to approve the project it may be appealed if the Hearing Officer subsequently approves it.

See the listing of the discretionary building projects reviewed by the LJCPA following this report.
